Girls

Tips for matching colors for each season:

I talked to my sister, and she said, "If you are wearing a black shirt or pants, do not wear brown shoes!" In the spring, wear bright colors like orange, green, pink, purple, blue, yellow, and red. Match everything carefully. In the summer, you would really wear the same colors as spring. In the winter, light colored fur coats are really in style. Brown and white colors are also good together. In the fall, tans, golds, and silvers are good colors.

Boys

Match your style:

Skater- Audios(shoes)
Jackets/hoodies
Ripped and faded jeans
Short socks
Jersey

Preppy- Striped or plaid shirts
faded jeans
etnies (shoes)

Cowboy/Country- Button-up shirts, plain jeans, and boots

Ask the Bulldog

Dear Bulldog,

My friend is always bragging about how much money she has and how many new things she gets. I think this is kind of rude when she does it around people that don't have a lot of nice things. How do I tell her to stop bragging without getting her mad at me?

Sincerely,
Confused

Dear Confused,

If your friend is bragging in front of the other kids that don't have what she has then maybe you should sit her down first. Then, tell her politely that maybe when she brags about her stuff it might hurt the other kids' feelings that don't have the expensive things. Also, if she doesn't want to be your friend after you tell her and she wants to stop being your friend for that.... then she was never a real friend.

Signed,
The Bulldog

Dear Bulldog,

I am having a really hard time in math. I just don't understand some of the problems we are talking about. I am too shy to ask my teacher anything in front of everyone. I feel so stupid. What can I do?

Sincerely,
Shy

Dear Shy,

If you're having problems in math you should talk to your teacher after class so that you understand what you're doing in there. Also you won't have anyone around so you won't feel stupid. Tell your teacher that you were too afraid and now is your chance to understand.

Signed,
The Bulldog

Dear Bulldog,

Some of the other kids call me names and pick on me. I feel so sad when this happens. If I tell on them, then things will only get worse. What should I do?

Sincerely,
Lonely

Dear Lonely,

Go up to the kids that are bullying you and ask them why they are bullying you? Maybe if they tell you why, you could fix it. You might be able to reason with them. If they don't stop picking on you or don't tell you why, then maybe you could leave a note on the teacher's desk (not saying who it is from) and maybe the teacher will talk to everyone. If she does read it and does nothing about it, then speak to your teacher and tell her what's going on. If your teacher is going to do something about it, tell her not to mention your name or it might get worse as you said.

Signed,
The Bulldog

4-H Club

by Joshua Draluck

First of all you might want to know, "What is 4-H?" 4-H is a youth organization that includes 9-19 years old. When students get in fifth grade they get to be in the program. The 4-H clubs are continuing to collect can tabs. At the end of school year, they collect them all and donate them to the Ronald McDonald House so that families will have a place to stay. The officers have been making presentations and, they can choose any topic! Last month fifth grade collected school supplies for children. The clubs are working for points. You get points by donating things. The club with the most points gets to go on a special class field trip. Mrs. Strausbaugh's class has the most points in fifth grade right now.
